

TROPICAL CLIMATE

Training Internship and Volunteer Opportunities in Social Service near Kandy

We are looking for interns, trainees and volunteers to assist with scientific and social research in Kandy. Interns should be amidst their post schooling education and who are interested in acquiring competencies.

Interns need to be able to write with precision and be able to communicate in English, Tamil and Sinhala and seeks to understand the world around them, and cares to have a beneficial impact on communities and environment. Projects, writing assignments, extra-curricular activities may point to your interests. Some skills that are needed are

- Project work related to Science, Society, or Environment
- Able to work in a challenging environment
- Ability to work in a diverse team
- Willingness to undertake field work among affected
- Have a good command of written and spoken
- Competence in Sinhala, Tamil and other languages
- IT Skills for administration
- Ability to maintain office records
- Ability to work independently and conscientiously
- Be well organized

To apply, send a brief resume, cover letter and names of two referees who know your past work by email to receive immediate consideration.

To: fectcv@gmail.com and hr@tropicalclimate.org

Tropical Climate is a non-profit charitable organization which undertakes socio-economic, scientific, and engineering, research organization which undertakes publishing, advocacy, training and education with offices at 17 km East of Kandy (Digana), and North of Kandy and also overseas. It has partnerships with other organizations.

Tropical Climate

c/o, Maintenance office
Digana Village,
Kandy, Sri Lanka

PHONE (+94) 81-4922992
FAX (+94) 81-23764746 (on request)
E-MAIL info@tropicalclimate.org
WEB SITE <http://www.tropicalclimate.org>